Season's Greetings

As the holiday season draws near, we are excited to welcome you to Downtown Truro—a place full of festive cheer, local charm, and community spirit. This season, we encourage you to shop local and discover the wonderful range of shops, services, and accommodations that make our downtown so special. Whether you're searching for the perfect gift or simply enjoying the holiday atmosphere, there's something for everyone in our vibrant community.

We also invite you to take part in the many holiday events happening throughout the month. From seasonal celebrations to family-friendly activities, there's no better way to embrace the season than by making memories here in downtown Truro.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the Downtown Truro Partnership team, we wish you and your loved ones a joyful and peaceful holiday season. Thank you for supporting local, and we look forward to celebrating with you.
